Melissa, Makayla, Jenn and Olivia are all good friends. They find time in their lives to get together and check on one another when a shoulder to lean on is needed.

Melissa tries to balance loving herself, finding her worth, and letting go of childhood traumas. If or when love comes her way, Melissa hopes to never lose herself in loving a man ever again.

Makayla has dealt with so much that only a few individuals know about. She's torn between holding on to her marriage or her secret lover who has been around since she was a little girl. If you love something let it go... Makayla's love has come back into her life that forces her to make a life altering decision.

Then there's Jenn, on the outside looking in one would think she had it all together. Only her deceased grandmother knows what Jenn harbors inside. She has abandonment issues and pushes people away before they can make their way to her heart. For her sake and others, she feels that's the best way to be.

For years Olivia had to fight. She remembered when her father was alive, she was protected. Olivia's friends are all she has because she comes from a family full of dysfunction and secrets. Olivia discovers her own meaning of life.

If it's not one thing it's another. Someone in this group of women gets a reality check when she tries to separate them with her deceitful actions. She learns they're more alike than she'd thought when it's too late.
