One lie can change the course of your entire life.

When a face from his past shows up asking for forgiveness, Lucky John thinks that he can salvage a friendship. But, when that same person vanishes in a flurry of theft and police sirens, Lucky realizes that there's more to this reunion than he ever imagined.

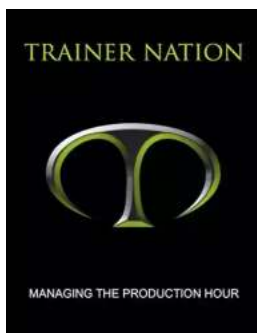

It turns out Lucky's former friend is wanted for murdering his former flame's new husband, something Lucky doesn't believe he's capable of. Suddenly, it's up to Lucky to find him and get to the bottom of it before the police cart him off for a crime he might not have committed or a mystery assailant takes him out for good.
