One strange opportunity can make the entire world change

When a director from Hollywood comes to tell Lucky John he wants to make a movie about his life, Lucky is confused about why. Sure, he's had his share of adventures, but would anyone really want to watch them on the big screen? When people start getting murdered all over the Southeast though and the numbers from his winning lottery ticket are left marked in blood at the scenes, Lucky begins to think his life might be more interesting than he originally thought.

As he digs deeper into the mystery and finds the truth behind what's going on and who is doing it, Lucky realizes that even if his life is very interesting, it's even more dangerous.
