The Uses of Images as Historical Evidence

Peter Burke

'If you would like to understand . . . history . . . you should look carefully at portraits. In people's faces there is always something of the history of their time to be read, if one knows how to read it.'

GIOVANNI MORELLI

A Sonnet: The Bane Of Nigeria Nation

We 're just creatures of existence.
We scorn each other over our own belief.
What a sorry and sad circumstance,
In peace and harmony we will never live.

North or south, we 're one blood
Tied with a common goal and vision,
but never living in one accord.
Entangled in favoritism and discrimination.

Together scorn and disdain loom
Not giving Unity or harmony a room,
But comfortably accommodating acrimony.
Like a calamitous groom and bride,
Religious and tribal dichotomy
Has disrupted our lives!
