‘Once upon a time... and they lived happily ever after.’

Sounds familiar right? This is how fairy tales begin and end. Yet, life isn’t a fairy tale.

Once Upon a Life is the true story of a girl who found herself in a world far from what she had seen on television. This story emphasises that life is not a fairy tale or fantasy. Rather, it is filled with real events — ups and downs, the good, the bad and the ugly — and you need to know what to expect.

Many life lessons in this book should cause you to pause and reflect upon your life and background. With that, you will be more deliberate about your life and the decisions you make. You will also be able to see the events that have shaped your life and understand how you can put things in their right perspective in order to get where you want to go.
