The Coincidences Revealed

Within the pages of this collection, you will encounter an array of captivating stories where the improbable becomes reality. From chance encounters that lead to lifelong friendships, to uncanny parallels in lives separated by time and distance, these remarkable events will leave you questioning the very fabric of our existence.

One story featured in the Ricochet Day Collection tells the tale of two individuals, born on opposite sides of the world, who embark on parallel journeys through life. Their paths intertwine multiple times, crossing continents and cultures, until they finally discover their connections. It is a tale that showcases the astounding power of synchronicity and leaves us wondering about the forces at play in our lives.

Another extraordinary coincidence highlighted in the collection revolves around a pair of lost heirloom rings. Separated by generations and continents, these rings find their way back to their rightful home through a series of improbable events. It's a story that demonstrates the mysterious ways in which the universe works, weaving an intricate web of connections that we can't always comprehend.

Sometimes the most random events, both big and small, can help us re-evaluate our lives; the people we meet, the choices we make, and the coincidences that change our destinies.

If only I had left the house five minutes sooner. . .

If only I had told them how I felt. . .

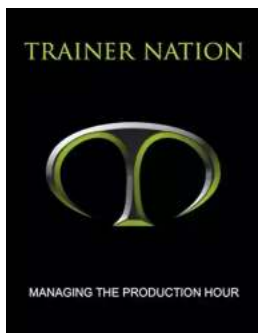

If only . . .

Ricochet Day follows a group of eclectic and sometimes eccentric characters as their lives intertwine one fateful day in San Francisco, 1989. It is a collection of interconnected stories about the simple twists of fate that not only affect us, but those around us as well.
