A local craftsman, the last person to see the girl, is questioned and released. The girl's friends are interviewed. Nobody knows what happened to Cobie, except that she left for work one day and didn't arrive. The only lead is the girl's car, parked where she worked. But it provides no clues and nobody saw anything.

Days go by. Then weeks. The case grows cold.

The employer of the girl's mother knows Jesse McDermitt, a retired Marine and reputed government spook. Jesse leans on people the way only he can and soon finds there is a lot more to the abduction than anyone knew.
