Introducing Ally - A fiercely independent woman:

Ally, the female protagonist, is a strong-willed, independent woman who runs her own successful business. She is determined to make a name for herself in a male-dominated industry. But when she crosses paths with Austin Macintyre, her world is turned upside down. Despite her initial resistance, Ally finds herself irresistibly drawn to Austin's charms and his unwavering dedication to her.

Meet Melody - A woman seeking her true passion:

Melody, on the other hand, is an aspiring artist struggling to find her true calling. Drawn to Drew's enigmatic personality and his artistic brilliance, she embarks on a passionate affair that brings out her hidden desires and awakens her long-lost passion for art. Together, Drew and Melody explore their shared passions, pushing each other to new heights and discovering the depths of their love.

A mesmerizing tale of love, passion, and self-discovery:

"Tempt Me" beautifully weaves together the stories of these two couples, highlighting the power of love and the complexities of relationships. As Austin and Ally navigate through their own insecurities and personal battles, they inspire each other to overcome obstacles and discover true happiness. Similarly, Drew and Melody's journey of self-discovery and artistic exploration is a testament to the transformative power of love and passion.

With its richly descriptive narrative, the book immerses readers in a world filled with passion, desire, and emotional intensity. Mistaken identity leads to love in TEMPT ME, the first book in the new steamy contemporary romance series THE MACINTYRE BROTHERS SERIES from USA Today Bestselling Author S. E. Lund:

I thought my life was all mapped out – marriage to my very ambitious fiancé, a career in business writing and a family.

Then I found my husband-to-be in the middle of more than just dictation with his nubile young 'sexretary' Bunni.

That's Bunni with an 'i' just so we're clear.

Brokenhearted, I swore off men in general and office romances in particular. I escaped to Manhattan with the plan of starting a new life on my own two feet, free of my cheating fiancé.

Despite an initial disastrous encounter with sexy bicycle courier Josh, I couldn't help but admire his buff body, sharp mind and sense of humor. On top of it, he was a real gentleman, offering to help me when my life crumbled around me.

Maybe a crass and meaningless relationship of sex, sex and more sex with his hunky and very buff cyclist body would be good enough. He might not be my own Mr. Big, but a fling with him would sure beat another session with B.O.B.

Then I discovered that the sexy bicycle courier who stole my heart was none other than Joshua Macintyre Jr., one of America's richest bachelors.

Not only that, he's also my boss.

Now, I'm afraid I'm going to break all my rules about office romances...
