"Relationships are at the heart of women's fiction, and Herron could teach a master class on creating them." Chicklit Central

Adele Darling has washed up in the sleepy gold-rush town her great-grandfather had given his name to, the town she'd left for good a long time ago.

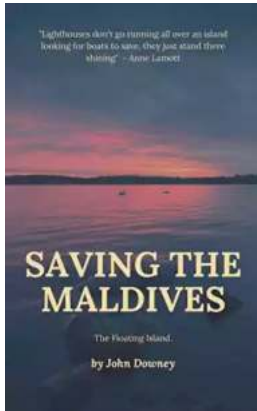

The saloon is a ruin, the business is broke and customers are scarce. Add into the mix Nate Houston - the handsome, guitar-playing bartender who had always believed he would be the next owner of the Golden Spike - and Adele has one potent cocktail on her hands.

This heartwarming, hilarious, and red-hot contemporary romance will leave you wishing for a marina view (or maybe a hot cowboy) of your very own.
