A mysterious inheritance, a huge mansion, and a family filled with secrets.

Struggling with the untimely death of her late husband and unsure what to do with her life, when Maggie Walkers receives a strange letter from her enigmatic and wealthy in-laws, she never could have expected what she'd discover. Her husband left an old mansion, nestled in the quiet town of Cannon Beach, in Maggie's name.

Reeling from the shock revelation, Maggie and her best friend Leanne leave behind their busy lives to visit the mansion... and they're quickly sucked into the small town's charm. And after Maggie stumbles upon her handy – and exceedingly handsome – neighbor William, she's faced with an impossible choice: to sell the mansion and return to her old life, or to dive into the unknown and see where this new opportunity will take her.

As Maggie digs deeper into her husband's secretive past, she'll uncover the strange story behind the elusive Haystack Society her husband was involved with – along with the mystery behind Cannon Beach and her alluring neighbor William.

Can Maggie find happiness when everything she's ever known is called into question? Or will the pain of being lied to sabotage her second chance at love?
