From the back cover...A journey can be crossing physical miles, or spanning in the mind the great divide. But either way we need locomotion to get to where we're going. Words can show and pictures can tell; when you combine the two you get once again a collection of musings, from Jay Desind, crafter of poetry that enters other dimensions when coupled with images. Buy your pass here, step aboard, and enjoy the ride. The rumble you feel within your bones could be the tracks beneath bringing you places, or more likely in this case, Jay's hand on your shoulder holding you down as his glimpses of life make you want to fly.
