Is Keeli's misstep a tumble into true love?

Feisty Keeli Larsen has nothing more to lose.

She's left her home, her family, and her job to pursue a solo career as a jewelry designer. She's poured her last dime into the new venture. but reserved her heart for an unattainable prince charming. He's Chicago's most eligible bachelor, a real ladies man, who doesn't know she exists. He's a billionaire to boot. She can't even afford a warm winter coat.

Wyatt Lyons Howe IV has nothing more to gain.

The handsome billionaire has everything money can buy. Groomed as heir to a far-reaching family empire, sexy, successful, and brilliant, he wins at everything but arguments with his father. Wyatt is weighed down by responsibility, that rests heavily on shoulders that don't want the burden. This beguiling bachelor is suffocating under family expectations including an unwanted fiancé.

Keeli is sinking under debt, Wyatt under privilege until a one-minute elevator ride and a misplaced hand alter the trajectories of their lives. The unknown Keeli is on her prince charming's radar at last. She needs him. He wants her. Or is the opposite true?

What if she's seeking a bankroll? What about his 'love 'em and leave 'em' reputation? Can Wyatt risk his heritage, family, and fortune for a starving artist who stumbled into his life?

Here's the sexy, satisfying roller coaster ride that results when two people destined never to meet find themselves bedazzled.
